- * The reduction in non tax revenues could be explained mainly due to the decline in grants during the period July-February 2014/2015 if compared to the exceptional grants received during the period of comparison July-February 2013/2014. It is noteworthy that the exceptional grants received the same period last year were US$ 1 billion grant from the United Arab of Emirates, in addition to LE 20.3 billion (out of LE 29.7 billion allocated to finance the first stimulus package related to the presidential decree no. 105, 2013).

1/ Data reflects budget figures in light of Presidential Decree Number 65 for the year 2014.

2/ The decline in taxes on corporate profits from EGPC is mainly due to the fact that no petroleum settlements were received during the study period.

FISCAL SECTOR

Source: Ministry of Finance

*The reduction in non tax revenues could be explained mainly due to the decline in grants during the period July-February 2014/2015 if compared to the exceptional grants received during the period of comparison July-February 2013/2014. It is noteworthy that the exceptional grants received the same period last year were US$ 1 billion grant from the United Arab of Emirates, in addition to LE 20.3 billion (out of LE 29.7 billion allocated to finance the first stimulus package related to the presidential decree no. 105, 2013).

1/ Data reflects budget figures in light of Presidential Decree Number 65 for the year 2014.

2/ Includes grants from Public Entities .

3/ The decline in dividends from EGPC is mainly due to the fact that no petroleum settlements were received during the study period.

4/ Revenues from special accounts and funds belonging to budget sector entities like public universities, medical centers and research institutes. Such revenues are met by equivalent amounts on the expenditures side.

5/ Includes additional 10 percent of the monthly receipts of the Special Accounts and Funds, in addition to 25 percent of the outstanding balances of those funds were transferred to the Ministry of Finance applied only during 2013/2014 according to law Number 19 for the year 2013.

6/ Reflects allocations to finance investment projects in previous year, which were not used during that year. Such allocations are thus carried forward to the current fiscal year and recorded as self-financing sources of investment under miscellaneous revenues.
