External Sector

- The Balance of Payment recorded an overall surplus US$ 599 million during the First half of FY22/23. On the current account side, current account deficit narrowed by 77.2 percent to reach US$ -1.8 billion (compared to larger deficit US$ -7.8 billion in the same period last year). The improvement in current account balance was mainly attributed to improved trade deficit which has narrowed by US$ 6.2 billion to reach US$ -15.6 billion (driven by the fall in import payments by US$ 5 billion, and the increase in export proceeds by US$ 0.8 billion). The second contributor to improvement in current account balance is the uptick in services balance by US$ 5.2 billion to reach US$ 10.9 billion (driven by the surge in total receipts by US$ 4.6 billion, mainly increased receipts from tourism and Suez Canal). On the capital and financial account side, it recorded net inflows US$ 2.8 billion during the period of study, compared to US$ 11.4 during the same period of last year.

Detailed Balance of payment performance:

- The improvement in current account deficit was mainly due to:
 - Non-Oil trade deficit narrowed by US$ 6.5 billion to record US$ -17.3 billion during the period of study, compared to US$ -23.8 billion during the same period of last year, mainly due to the decline in non-oil merchandise imports by 17.3 percent to reach US$ 30.2 billion during the period of study, compared to US$ 36.5 billion during the same period last year (mainly due to the decline in imports of passenger vehicles, telephones, and spare parts and accessories for cars and tractors). Meanwhile non-oil merchandise exports rose slightly by US$ 124.8 million to reach

US$ 12.9 billion during July-December FY22/23 (mainly increased exports of gold, phosphate, mineral fertilizers, transmitter and receiver devices of radio/television.

- Oil trade balance recorded surplus of US$ 1.8 billion. This came as a main result of the rise in oil exports by US$ 690.6 million during the period of study, on the back of increased natural gas exports. Such a rise was curbed by the decline in exports of crude oil, and oil products, and the rise in oil imports at a slower pace than the witnessed rise in oil exports leading to a surplus in overall oil trade balance.
- Tourism receipts rose by 25.7 percent to record US$ 7.3 billion (compared to US$ 5.8 billion during the same period of last year), in light of the rise in number of tourist nights by 27.2 percent to reach 78.4 million nights, and the rise in number of tourist arrivals to Egypt by 27.5 percent to reach 6.8 million tourists during the period of study.
- The increase in transport receipts by 45.1 percent to record US$ 6.8 billion during period of study (compared to US$ 4.7 billion during same period of last year). mainly driven by the increase in Suez Canal receipts by 17.8 percent to register US$ 4 billion during the period of study, compared to US$ 3.4 billion the same period las year (driven by the rise in net tonnages of vessels by 13.3 percent to reach 753.3 million tons).
- The factors that mitigated the improvement of the current account:
 - The decline in remittances of Egyptians working abroad by 23.0 percent to only US$ 12.0 billion (against US$ 15.6 billion).
 - The rise in investment income deficit by 25.5 percent to US$ 8.9 billion (against US$ 7.1 billion).

The Capital and Financial Accounts performance

- The capital and financial account recoded net inflows US$ 2.8 billion during the period of study, compared to US$ 11.4 billion during the same period of last year, mainly driven by;
 - Net outflow of portfolio investment in Egypt rose to about US$ 3.0 billion (against US$ 2.5 billion). This coincided with the contractionary monetary policies adopted by the Federal Reserve that led to the exodus of hot money from the emerging markets.
 - Foreign assets at banks moved up by US$ 1.8 billion during the period under review (representing an outflow), against a decline of US$ 8.3 billion (representing an inflow) in the corresponding period.
 - Net inflow of FDI in Egypt went up to register US$ 5.7 billion (against US$ 3.3 billion).
 - The change in the CBE's liabilities posted a net inflow of US$ 1.5 billion (against US$ 2.3 billion).
